2. I love running _____ it keeps me healthy.
3. I will have sausage _____ mash for tea please.

Lesson 2 - Adding Conjunctions

What is a conjunction?

Can you remember the 3 conjunctions we looked at last lesson?

Top Tip

You could write the sentences out on a blank piece of paper

Or

You could cross the middle full stop and capital letter out and use a coloured pencil to write the conjunction above.

1. I can't go swimming. I have forgotten my swimming trunks.
2. I'd like to go to the park. My mum won't let me.
3. The old woman wanted to feed her dog. There was nothing in the cupboard.
4. I bought some sweets. I ate them on the way home.
5. I can't eat sweets. I have eaten all of my dinner.
6. I went to the cinema. I really wanted to stay at home instead.
7. I'd love to go for a walk. I would be happy to stay inside.

Challenge

Now write some sentences that include a conjunction:

Lesson 3 – Using Question Marks and Exclamation Marks

A question mark is used when someone is asking a question usually with who, what, where, why, how. How are you? What do you want for tea?

An exclamation mark is used in a number of ways but usually shows someone who is shouting, shocked or excited.

Stop doing that now!

I cannot wait to go the party today!

Add in a question or exclamation mark at the end of each sentence in the box

1. When are we going home
2. How long is a ruler
3. Get out of my bedroom now
4. Why do you like cheese
5. I cannot wait to go on the rollercoasters tomorrow
6. Oh no
7. What time are we going to the party
8. Do you like rice

Challenge

Write two sentences, one with a ? and one with an !

Lesson 4 – Using Question Marks and Exclamation Marks

When do we use a question mark?

When do we use an exclamation mark?

Write 4 questions that you could ask your teacher, don't forget the ?

Write 4 sentences where you are shouting or excited, don't forget the !
