

Singular and Plural

1. Read the sentences and cross out the wrong plural spelling.

One day I walked down a quiet road. There were lots of (houses/houss) on each side.

My favourite one had four green (windowes/windows) and three blue (doors/doores).

I looked in the garden, and there were hundreds of yellow (floweres/flowers). Then there was a big bang!

I looked round and five (fireworks/fireworkes) had gone off in the sky.

Running towards me down the road were 2 frightened (puppys/puppies), the (banges/bangs) had scared them.

Round the corner there were four green (cars/cares) parked in a straight line.

In the cars there were lots of children clapping their (handes/hands).

They were going on their (holidayes/holidays) to Spain.

One child told me that there would be lots of (beachs/beaches) and they were going to make (sandcastls/sandcastles) and eat (lollys/lollies).

I had a nice walk that day, I'm hoping to go on even more (walkes/walks)!

2. Change the singular noun(s) in each sentence to plural and rewrite the sentence.

1. The squirrel ate the nut.

2. The baby cried.

3. The boy went on the bus.

4. Please wash the dish.

5. The child saw the mouse.
