

Use the story to help you answer the following questions:

1. Who is George? _____

2. What has the goat lost?

3. What piece of clothing did George give to the goat?

4. How did the fox's sleeping bag get wet?

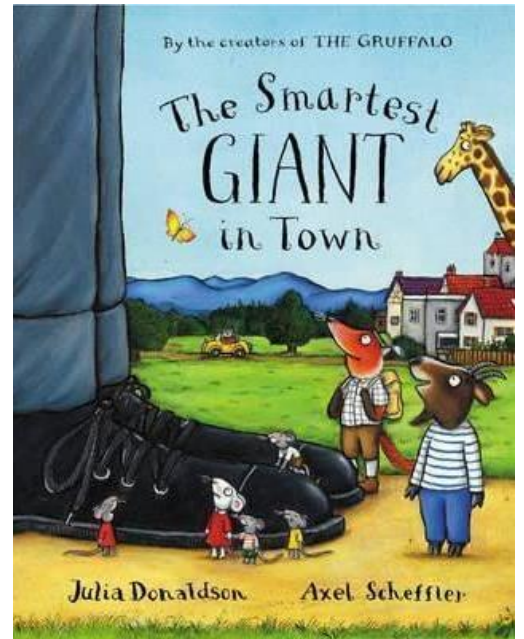

5. What did the new shop sell?

6. What pattern was on the socks?

7. Why do the animals think that George is kind?

8. What words rhyme in George's song?

9. Why does George get so upset?

Number the animals 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 in the order George met them.

What excuse did George give to the giraffe when he gave him his scarf?
Tick one.

It was tickling my toes.

It didn't match my socks.

It kept coming untucked.

It was giving me blisters.

Section D

Some of these statements are true, and some are false; tick the correct column to sort them.

	True	False
George gave his belt to the dog.
George gave his shirt to the giraffe.
George gave his tie to the giraffe to use as a path.
George gave his shirt to the goat to use as a sail for his boat.		